Marc Bernstein

Marc Bernstein, the son and grandson of Holocaust survivors, was raised in one of USA's most historic cities, and has been employed as an art conservator in this currently disastrous country for the past half-a-decade. Destined to have a paranoid sense of the importance of our history, he compulsively seeks to create long lasting objects that mark our zeitgeist while honoring the making traditions of the past. He has shown work in the US, Sardinia, Guatemala, and now in Germany!
